Anonymous Threats Against Men Who May Testify Against Rioters.

STATE SECURES MUCH EVIDENCE

Problem of Punishment Confronts Prosecuting Officers—Two Thousand Negroes Have Left the City.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 17.—One more victim was added to the death list of the Springfield mob tonight when G. W. Scott succumbed to a gunshot wound in the lungs, received Friday night. Scott's death brings the total to six and is the fourth chargeable to the disorder in the "black belt" near Twelfth and Madison streets. It was here that the hunted negroes made their stand. Another death is expected momentarily. W. H. Bowe, chief clerk in the county treasurer's office and one of the most popular citizens of Springfield, is slowly sinking from the effect of the bullet which hit him and the beating he received from a crowd of negroes Friday night.

Bowe's friends have warned the authorities that "Billy" will be avenged and that the event of his death will cause a redoubled of the vigilance of the troops' commanders.

"Wait until the troops go" is the word that has been passed around town, and recognizing the strength of the undercurrent, the state, city and county officials are taking every effort to turn public sentiment.

To that end Governor Denison is in conference with various civic bodies, including the Bar association. Evidence is not lacking that many citizens know to have important testimony regarding the mob and leaders have been debarred from offering it because of threats of violence made against them anonymously.

The riot could scarcely have been avoided and is not used as a disgrace to the city. The real disgrace will come if the guilty are allowed to escape." As the slogan of the authorities. So the civic bodies are requested to urge all good citizens to reveal whatever of testimony they may possess. Only when weight of evidence is likely to break through the local press here and reassure conditions, according to the police and other officials.

Lost in Recovered.

The gathering of evidence began in earnest today. Police men in plain clothes were sent to search the houses of prisoners and suspects and as a result the police station, looking like a general store tonight, hardware, groceries, men's and boys' and women's clothing, dry goods and shoes were recovered in great quantities, most of them bearing the price tags of the looted business houses. Naturally many arrests followed. Eighty prisoners were crowded into the small cell room at the police station, the lack of comfort being such that only the common floor is available for sleeping space.

"That will take some of the rioting out of them," was the comment of one police man.

Five arrests today are considered important by the police. It is in the homes of these men that most of the loot was found. A sixth person is being sought by the police. Who ever that when he is arrested practically all of the ring leaders of the mob will be in custody.

"We have the things on the run," said Evan Jones, chief of detectives, and he added that many suspects are leaving town to avoid arrest.

Confesses Starting Fires.

One young one of the prisoners taken yesterday, has confessed to starting a number of fires, the police say. Young, who is 22 years of age, came here from Missouri a short time ago. A search of his room at 26 North Seventh street revealed a quantity of overalls, short pants, shirts and other articles of apparel.

The absence of outbreaks last night and today have set many citizens to discussing the possibility of an early evacuation of the city by the troops. It is practically certain, however, that the militia will remain here until the special grand jury summoned today has completed its duty and returned the indictments which State's Attorney Hatch prepared.

The forces at hand will not be added to, however. The 4,000 soldiers now encamped here are sufficient to cover the city so thoroughly that there is little chance for a mob to form at any point.

A special grand jury was summoned this morning by Judge James A. Creighton of the Sangamon county circuit court as the result of a consultation held yesterday afternoon between Governor Charles S. Denison and State's Attorney Frank Hatch. Both of these officials were of the wrong opinion that this mob should be taken.

The grand jury will be held in session as long as the mob violence is threatened. Evidence will be submitted to the body day by day by officers and soldiers and indictment returned as soon as a case is made against an individual.

Evidence Against Citizens.

A large amount of evidence implicating many citizens of this city has been obtained during the rioting and this will be submitted to the grand jury. Suspects have been arrested each day during the reign of terror and will be held awaiting the deliberations of the officials' body.

Headquarters have been established at 18 North Seventh street, opposite the county jail, by the state's attorney. The evidence that will be submitted to the grand jury will be collected at this place.

The purpose of establishing headquarters at this place is to facilitate matters in gathering the evidence from the police officers, deputies and soldiers. With nearly the entire force of the Illinois National guard in control today, Springfield again is ruled by law and order. Fifty-five hundred armed soldiers patrol the streets and the fever for blood has abated temporarily at least, among the wild elements which ruled the state capital for forty-eight hours.

There has been comparatively little disturbance since the Second Infantry from Chicago swept through the streets yesterday afternoon.

The news of the coming arrival of the Seventh Infantry and the First cavalry,

HAINS BROTHERS ACCUSED

Arraignment of Men Charged with Murder Takes Place.

ONE HELD AS AN ACCOMPLICE

Found to Have Been Acquitted of Murder of Friend—Hearing is Put Over for One Week.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., United States army, who shot and killed William E. Anns on Saturday at the Bayonne Yacht club, was today arraigned in the first district court in Long Island City before Magistrate Matthew J. Smith. Arraigned with the captain was his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who kept back the crowd with a revolver, while his brother carried out his vengeance on the man whom he asserted had ruined his home.

T. Jenkins Hains, who was first held on a charge of attempted felonious assault, was later charged with being an accessory to the killing of Anns. Before the arraignment today Harvey G. Rockwell, who had been a close friend of William Anns, the slain man, turned over to the district attorney of Queens county a package of letters received recently by Anns, in which he was warned that his life was in danger. It was said that the last letter he received contained him against visiting the Bayonne Yacht club on Saturday.

Since the shooting it has been learned that T. Jenkins Hains was tried in 1906 on a homicide charge when he was 20 years old. He was accused of having shot Edward Harrington, a friend, to death while the two were out in a boat off Old Point Comfort. Hains was acquitted by a jury on the plea of self-defense.

General Peter C. Hains, father of the young men, was in court today looking after the interests of his sons.

Yesterday young Mrs. Hains, who it is said had been in terms of close friendship with Mrs. Anns, wife of the slain man, came hurriedly to New York from her home in Waltham, Mass., and went to Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook in an effort to get possession of her three children, who have been living with General and Mrs. Hains. Mrs. Hains did not succeed in her mission, and it was believed that she left the city for her father's home in Massachusetts.

The body of William Anns was removed yesterday to his former home in Clarendon Avenue, Manhattan. Mrs. Anns was completely prostrated by the killing of her husband, and is under the constant care of physicians.

After the arraignment of the Hains brothers the hearing was put over for one week.
